The next level

With its contemporary design, Sketch R Mesh Back takes an already exceptional chair to the next level of style and comfort. The ultra-lean profile highlights the cutting-edge Sketch R silhouette. With constant, firm support and breathability, the mesh back material allows the spine to maintain its natural curve while providing circulation, keeping the body cooler throughout the day. And rated for 300-lbs., it has what it takes to perform beautifully in any work environment.

The Mesh chair offers the same outstanding array of functional and aesthetic options as the rest of the Sketch R family. Mesh Back offers Task and Stool models, four comfort control options, three kinds of arms and two base finish choices.

Very cool!
