TRENDWAY HONORS TOP DEALERS AT PRESIDENT'S CLUB EVENT

Holland, Mich. . . While most of us shivered under dismal winter blasts, Trendway Corporation honored their top-performing dealers at the company's annual President's Club event in the heart of the Mayan Riviera.

Though recent market conditions have offered little to rejoice about, participants found plenty to celebrate as they toasted what had been a very good year for them. "Recognizing and appreciating excellent results with our dealers is very meaningful to me," explained Bill Bundy, Trendway President and CEO. "Trendway's honorees grew their business nicely through the challenges of 2009. The President's Club event also serves to thank the spouses who are so important to our collective results."

The early February event was held at the Aventura Spa Palace resort in the heart of Riviera Maya, where the tropical sun meets the turquoise waters of the Caribbean. Honorees and their guests enjoyed several days of festivities in a setting of natural beauty and archeological marvels. The occasion was highlighted by an awards banquet where dealers and representatives were recognized for their commitment to Trendway and their outstanding sales achievement.
